The Interior department has given the farmers in the Devil's Lake country permission to cut six loads of wood each on the military wood reservation.

The Bennett school law in Wisconsin is likely to remain on the statute books after all. The one republican majority in the state senate will prevent its repeal.

The new mayor was not at all backward about explaining his views on gambling. In less than an hour from the time he was elected, he had every gambling house in the city closed as tight as an oyster.

The editor of the Journal has been elected to the legislature from this district by the grace of republican votes, and still you would think by the way he frantically tears his hair that he and the whole democratic ticket had been defeated and by fraud, when the fact is exactly the contrary and the five democrats have their certificates of election in their inside pockets. Let up for just one issue, Bro. Stivers, the thing is getting monotonous.

ADVICES from the Sandwich Islands says that King Kalakaua, who is on his way to this country, brings with him about $300,000, and as he has a mania for poker playing, and especially for playing without limit, the probabilities are that his visit will be in the nature a God-send to the gambling circles in the leading towns that he honors with his presence. The dusky monarch will undoubtedly give Brainerd a cold shoulder should he hear of the change in the administration.

JUDGE CHIPPERFIELD should feel considerable pride in his election to the office of municipal judge without opposition and without a dissenting vote. The council has placed great confidence in him by its action, and it is believed that he will be a credit to the position. Although a young man in years and only recently admitted to the bar, his qualifications were such as to make him eminently fitted for the place, and he presides with dignity over the court. He has received many congratulations.

Isn't it time that the people of this city and county began agitating the subject of drawing party lines in coming elections. If the democrats are in the majority in the city let them be responsible for the government of the same or vice versa. For some years every time a mayor has been elected, it has happened to be a democrat, the news has been heralded abroad that a victory had been gained by the democrats in this city when the fact was that no lines were ever drawn in city elections. Take it at the present time, for instance, and leaving the aldermen out entirely, every city office but one is filled by a democrat, not that they are not good officers but for a city like Brainerd which claims to be republican it looks as though the claim was unfounded. The democrats are not at all anxious to draw party lines, and why? Simply because democrats stick together and vote for men of their own political creed in any event and that is the secret of their success. Do you suppose that the democratic head of the city government would have resigned last Monday evening if he had not had the assurance that a democrat was to succeed him? And thus it is and ever will be unless the republicans take some stand in the matter. If Brainerd is a republican city let's know it.

County Auditor Ellenbecker is not very "slow" at selecting a canvassing board, ignoring the services of papers, and preparing certificates of election ahead of the canvass. Mr. Ellenbecker's actions were such as to disgust all citizens who favor the transaction of public business in its regular order, and none were more surprised at his course than his political associates, many of whom did not believe that he would be a party to any trickery for the sake of any candidate's interests. A BUSINESS SESSION.

Mayor Stivers Resigns and Alderman Wheatley is Elected to the Position.

The Gambling Houses in the City are Closed Within an Hour After His Election.

The Monday evening session of the city council was attended with more than usual interest by the citizens and members of that body, the occasion being the expected resignation of Mayor Stivers and the election of a man to that position, which the new charter provides for. The meeting opened with a full board and the regular routine of business was transacted. The reports of the chief of police, city clerk and superintendent of electric lights was accepted and filed. Bill of the Gull River Co. for $24 was laid over without action, and the clerk ordered to make counter claim of $50 for horse burned at Gull River fire. The matter of raising money to meet interest due Jan. 1st, 1891, was referred to the finance committee to report at next regular meeting. The resolution introduced ordering a sidewalk built, commencing at the mill track and running north to the south side of Laurel street and west to the Mississippi river bridge was adopted.

A communication from His Honor, the Mayor, was read as follows:

To the Honorable Council of the City of Brainerd: Gentlemen: Having been elected to an office which will require me to be absent from this city the greater portion of the time between now and the expiration of my term as mayor, I feel it to be my duty to resign the office of mayor, in order that you may elect as my successor one who will be able, and will be able to give the duties of the office the required time and attention. Since the beginning of my term as a city officer with you I have been deeply gratified with the thorough understanding and co-operation that have continued unbroken between the council and myself, and with the thoroughly efficient and competent manner in which your honorable body has performed its duties. For the reason already stated I hereby tender you my resignation as mayor, to take effect as soon as my successor takes the oath of office.

Very respectfully,

H. C. STIVERS.

The resignation was accepted as was also the resignation of Judge Fleming, after the following communication was read:

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 1, 1890.

To the City Council of the City of Brainerd:

Gentlemen: I hereby resign my office as municipal judge of the city of Brainerd, and in so doing permit me to extend to you my sincere thanks for the honor and confidence you have placed in me, and for the opportunity to serve as a city officer with you. I have been deeply gratified with the thorough understanding and co-operation that have continued unbroken between the council and myself, and with the thoroughly efficient and competent manner in which your honorable body has performed its duties. For the reason already stated I hereby tender you my resignation as mayor, to take effect as soon as my successor takes the oath of office.

Very respectfully,

W. A. FLEMING.

The new charter provides that in case of a vacancy in the office of mayor may be filled by the council instead of calling a new election, and accordingly nominations were called for.

Alderman Hemstead placed in nomination N. W. Wheatley, president of the council, and no other nominations being made the ballot was prepared and the vote standing seven for N. W. Wheatley and two for J. H. Howe. Mr. Wheatley being declared elected.

Immediately upon his election Mr. Wheatley arose and thanked the gentlemen for the honor of electing him to the office, and stated that he should endeavor to give the city a good government and that his efforts should be turned toward reformation in regard to the gambling in the city. He would stop it if he could do so with the present chief of police or he would get a new one. He further stated that he had no friends to reward or axes to grind, and whatever he did would be with a sense of duty.

Mr. Hagberg was unanimously elected president of the council for the remainder of the term.

The council then adjourned to meet in special session for the purpose of electing a municipal judge to fill the vacancy. C. E. Chipperfield was nominated and received the unanimous vote for the position and was declared elected, after which the special session adjourned.

Since the beginning of my term as a city officer with you I have been deeply grateful with the thorough understanding and co-operation that have continued unbroken between the council and myself, and with the thoroughly efficient and capable manner in which your honorable body has performed its duties. For the reason already stated I hereby tender you my resignation as mayor, to take effect as soon as my successor takes the oath of office.

Very respectfully, H. C. STIVERS.

The resignation was accepted as was also the resignation of Judge Fleming, after the following communication was read:

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 1, 1890. To the City Council of the City of Brainerd. Gentlemen: I hereby resign my office as municipal judge of the city of Brainerd, and in so doing permit me to extend to the members of this honorable body, to the present, my thanks for the honor and confidence which they have placed in me, and to the chief of police and to the other police officers, my heartfelt thanks for their kindly consideration and uniform courtesy toward me during the time I have had the honor to hold the office which I now resign. Thanks to one and all. With my best wishes for my successor, I am, W. A. FLEMING.

The new charter provides that in case of a vacancy in the office of mayor may be filled by the council instead of calling a new election, and accordingly nominations were called for.

Alderman Wheatley, placed in nomination N. W. Wheatley, president of the council, and no other nominations being made the ballot was prepared. The vote standing seven for N. W. Wheatley and two for J. J. Howe. Mr. Wheatley being declared elected. Immediately upon his election Mr. Wheatley arose and thanked the gentlemen for the honor, stating that he should endeavor to give the city a good government and that his efforts should be turned toward reformation in regard to the gambling in the city. He would stop if he could do so with the present chief of police or he would get a new one. He further stated that he had no friends to reward or axes to grind, and whatever he did would be with a sense of duty. Mr. Hagberg was unanimously elected president of the council for the remainder of the term.

The council then adjourned to meet in special session for the purpose of electing a municipal judge to fill the vacancy. C. E. Chipperfield was nominated and received the unanimous vote for the position and was declared elected, after which the special session adjourned.

THIRTY-THREE duels have been fought by Rochester, the French editor and politician. In seven of them he was wounded.

The story that a San Francisco lawyer has been hypnotized so that he cannot drink whisky suggests the formation of a new temperance party to work this remedy.

An Indiana physician claims he has been using the Koch system in his practice for years. It was probably modesty that prevented the Hoosier doctor mentioning it before.

CONFIDENCE is not only a plant of slow growth, but an extremely sensitive plant. The great house of Baring Bros., built up after infinite pains for 120 years, went down in a day.

The log cabin in Washington county, Ky., in which it is said, Abraham Lincoln lived as a boy, and where his father was married, has been bought by a committee from Chicago. The structure will be taken down and removed to the World's fair grounds, where it will be re-erected.

Mr. ENSON asserts that it is the greed of electric companies that causes fatalities by electric wires, small, cheap wires carry dead by currents, while large wires are harmless. He suggests laws regulating the size of wires and an inspection to see that the law is obeyed.

It is claimed that a storage battery will be perfected in Chicago which will entirely do away with overhead wires in street car locomotion. The battery will run a car eight hours with each charge. It is predicted that all the cars in the city will be run by battery within a year.

A SOCIETY has been organized in Germany to propagate rabbits in order that the poor people may have flesh food often. The society might find it fully as practicable to plant colonies in Australia, and thus bring the poor people and the rabbits which are a plague there together.

The stories of most repulsive barbarities perpetrated by those who were supposed to be carrying civilization to Africa are not less revolting. But enough is known to show that some at least who went into the dark continent left all civilization, to say nothing of common decency, behind them.

BARRY ROTHSCHILD, of Vienna, is taking the nerve cure at Wausau, near Munich. This cure, which lasts twenty-one days, consists in walking about bare-footed, taking daily baths in ice-cold water and living on a diet of vegetables. It ought to give a man nerve for anything.

There is a man in St. Louis, Mich., who in order to overcome the opium habit, was advised to smoke olives with tobacco in his pipe. It certainly did abolish the hankering after both opium and tobacco, but it has left him a olive victim, and now he smokes olives, a pound a day, and the habit is rapidly drying up his system.

A DESIRE for education induced a young man in California to rob a stage. He wanted to go to college, and at the point of a pistol he forced a number of passengers to give him their valuables, which it was his intention to convert into cash to pay for his tuition. As the heavy hand of the law brought him up with a round turn, his education will now be imparted to him in a prison, and will take the form of a useful trade.

GRAND MASTER POWDERLY's conduct in moving to reduce his salary from $5,000 to $3,500 is not the common thing, but it is not without precedent. Horace Greeley once successfully proposed an increase in his salary, alleging that he did not think the paper could afford to pay it. President Bliss of the Boston and Albany railroad, has just refused an increase of pay from $12,000 to $20,000 a year, for the reason that he does not consider his services worth so much.

A HOPEFUL journalist looks forward to the day when, having conquered physical disease, science will turn to the conquest of moral ill in the individual. A lymph which injected under the cuticle would drive the lie out of a man, or one that would subdue the tiger in him, whether it make him a brute or a thief, would be a valuable discovery. In this view of the case there is plenty of work ahead for the savant.

As an instrument of torture to sensitive people although its purpose is to omit music, it has been invented by an Austrian. It is shaped like a piano, is operated by a key-board, and its "harmony" is the combined strains of six violins, two violas, two violoncellos, and a harp. The inventor lost the use of one ear while endeavoring to perfect the instrument and can hear with the other only when his mouth is open. What effect this music will have upon the public ear may be conjectured.

DISSECTIONS from the army are decreasing slowly, but as the benefits of the new law become more evident, the evil of running away from Uncle Sam's care will diminish. About nine men in every hundred deserted last year, which was a much larger proportion than dodged when the civil war made doing one's duty most dangerous. There is no glory in doing menial work in garisons, and this demoralizes the men who do not see the true nobility of the slightest true service.

SURE TO WIN.

Gen. Miles of the Opinion that the Indians will Fight.

The War Department Making Preparation for a Winter Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Gen. Miles, who has been in the Northwest since last Saturday night, in daily consultation with Secretary of War, Gen. Schiefel and Secretary No. 10, upon matters relating to the Indian situation in the Northwest, left for Chicago to-day. The general believes that danger is imminent.

The seriousness of the situation, he says, is not to be underestimated. The danger is more widespread than it has been at any time in the history of the nation. The Indians are not only fighting, but they are fighting with a vengeance. It is a more comprehensive plan than anything that has been attempted before. A Visit to the New Congressman-Elect at His Farm Home Near Belgrade.

Among the many surprises of the last election none were greater than the result of the congressional campaign in the Fifth district of Minnesota. There were three candidates in the field, S. G. Constock, Republican, and John J. Whitehead, Democrat, and K. H. Halvorsen, Independent.

T. McGinnis has moved his family to Staples.

J. J. Kennedy has returned from a visit to Duluth.

H. S. Totton visited Grand Rapids on Wednesday.

Toys, allums, Christmas cards, and the finest stock of dolls in the city at Parkers.

An accident at the electric light station caused the lights to be shut off last night.

A skating rink will be opened on Seventh street north, near Gregory Park, the first of the week.

James Gunn, a brother of our deputy sheriff, was in the city from West Superior on Wednesday.

Manager Alexander has procured a treat for our music loving citizens, the famous Luttman Sextette.

G. W. Ingraham, of Jamestown, was in the city the first of the week. He was formerly in business in Brainerd.

The Swedish and Norwegian Baptist ministers of Minnesota will hold a conference in St. Paul, beginning on Dec. 11th.

On New Year's night the Hook and Ladder company will give a grand ball at the rink, and arrangements are being made for a grand good time.

We would advise our German and Swedish friends not to miss the Luttman Sextette on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th.

W. A. Fleming, having resigned his position as municipal judge, will resume his practice of law. He has an office on the second floor of the bank block.

There will be an ice cream social a Mrs. J. N. Nevers' on Monday evening by the ladies of the Congregational church. The public are cordially invited.

James Crane and wife arrived in the city Wednesday night from Ohio. They were on their way to Staples, where Mr. Crane will accept a position in Mrs. Closterman's Hotel.

It looks now as though an attempt would be made to revive the roller skating craze in this city, as the rink has been leased to LaGrave & Rowley for two nights each week during the winter for that purpose.

Holiday goods of all kinds cheap at Parkers.

The claim of Allen Morrison, of Crow Wing, Minn., of $200 for depredations by Chippewa Indians in 1856, has been allowed by the Interior department. Also that of Hugh Masterson, of the same place, for $18.

John Orth, who has been sick with typhoid fever for several weeks past, has sufficiently recovered to resume work in his shop on Laurel street again, where he would be pleased to meet his old friends and customers.

The schedule of liabilities, as filed by the assignee of J. E. Wilson with the clerk of the court, shows the amount to be $2989.97. The stock of goods on hand has been sold to J. M. Hayes for $500, the horses, delivery rigs and fixtures having been taken by H. J. Spencer on a chattel mortgage. From appearances it is estimated that the creditors will receive less than 25 per cent. of their claims.

John Willis, of this city, has been appointed inspector of timber and lumber for the entire system of the Northern Pacific road, with headquarters in St. Paul, and he enters upon his duties at once. While Mr. Willis' friends in Brainerd are pleased to see him promoted to a position which his long and faithful services with the company merits, they are loth to see him leave the city. He has been employed here some nineteen years. Mr. Willis will not remove his family for the present. Ole Erickson succeeds him in the lumber yard at the shops.

If you want goods cheap and good, go to Parkers.

On Saturday evening the gun shop J. & W. Paine, on Laurel street, was broken into by a thief who entered by taking out a window glass in the rear of the building, and a Winchester rifle, shot gun and four dollars in cash stolen from the room. The articles were not missed until the next day and Mr. Paine was not long in obtaining a clue. He followed the fellow to Staples, and on Monday night located him in a tie camp some miles out in the country. He was brought into town by Officer Burns of that place, and on Tuesday Sheriff Spalding went up and got him. The guns were found in his possession, but he claims to have bought them. He gives the name of Harry Greene, and is about 19 years old. The examination was set for to-day.

The concert of the Swedish Singing Quartette, under management of Mr. Luttman, took place in "Ludwigslust," Friday evening. Each number of the rich programme was attentively heard, and upon each of them followed such stormy applause that the singers felt themselves compelled to repeat single numbers, and in the kindest manner to add some new songs. You feel thoroughly enraptured when letting these northern fanciful songs act upon you, and you must heartily laugh when you hear Bellman's most excellent humorous musical rallies, for instance, "Susanne in Babylon."—Nordsee Zeitung, Jan. 8, Bremerhaven.

Fatal Accident.

On Saturday last John Dasher, formerly a well-known resident of this city, was killed at Tacoma while in the discharge of his duties as engineer on the Northern Pacific. An account of the accident is that a Northern Pacific freight train from Portland escaped from the control of its crew through the air brakes giving out on the grade entering Tacoma, and collided with another freight. Both locomotives and a dozen cars were hurled into the bay. Engineer Dasher and Fireman Horton, of the runaway train, were killed and two brakemen were fatally injured, and one brakeman is missing. The deceased was a man of family.

Death of Mr. Regan.

Rev. W. W. Regan, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this city, died at his residence on Fourth street north, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2nd, of Bright's disease. Deceased had lived in Brainerd for seven years and leaves a wife and son to mourn his death. He was 55 years of age. The funeral is being conducted this afternoon from the Baptist Church, Rev. Jenkins officiating.

Police Court Callings.

Harry Greene, the youth who stole the articles from Paine's gun shop, was sent to jail for petty larceny, and was pleaded guilty to a fine of $100 or serve ninety days in the county jail. He accepted the latter and thereby escapes a cold winter.

Jack Burns, who answered to the charge of having assaulted Police Officer Delaney with a Winchester rifle against the peace and dignity of the state on the morning of Dec. 3rd, was before Judge Chipfield yesterday morning, but the examination was adjourned until Monday, at 10 a. m., in order to secure witnesses. In the meantime Burns is out on $500 bail.

John Willet, a very black coon, was up before the court yesterday morning to answer to the charge of assault with intent to rape a ten-year-old girl in East Brainerd on Monday night. He waived examination and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury in March. The complaint was made by Jas. Lackey, who was on the ground about the time the alleged assault was committed, and assisted in running the coon down and delivered him to the police. The girl is the daughter of P. Ort, and the assault took place in the railroad yard. Her cries, when the nigger throwed her down, brought assistance in time to avert the perpetration of the crime. The villain claims he was only playing with her and denies having committed any offence against the laws, but his actions by attempting to escape seem to indicate that he was well aware of what would follow. Died at His Post of Duty.

Mrs. James E. Goodman received a telegram from Minneapolis on Wednesday morning bringing the sad news of the sudden death of her father, and she started on the noon train for that city. Mr. Palmeter, the deceased, was quite well known in Brainerd, having spent several months at different times with his daughter here during the past two years. He was a gentleman universally respected and liked, and his death brings a pang of sorrow to many a heart. The Minneapolis Evening Journal in speaking of his death says: "It was a singular death reported to Coronator Towers this morning. An old and trusted employee of a great railway corporation, stationed as a night watchman at the most important railway junction in the city, had thrown his last evening and lay stretched out dead in his little watch house at 1st street and 4th avenue N. The trains that thundered past him at an early hour in the morning, on their way to the far west or east, disturbed him not, and the passengers slumbered on, all unconscious of the fact that a most important guardian of the safety of the rail lay dead at his post. The dead man was J. S. Palmeter, once roadmaster of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, and now known to old residents. He was found shortly after 8 o'clock this morning at the foot of his cot where he had evidently fallen off while suffering from a paralytic stroke or a stroke of heart disease. His hands clasped the cot and on his face was the peaceful expression of one who was still in deep slumber. The police were notified, then the coroner and a patrol wagon bore the remains to County morgue. Death had evidently occurred only a short time, for the body was still warm. The deceased was a man of about 60 years of age and has several grown up children. One, a son, is a switchman and was at the spot when the remains were borne away. He said his father had suffered from a paralytic stroke about two years ago. A post-mortem examination, however, will be held. He was roadmaster for the St. Louis road some 10 years ago, and was held in high regard by the company. His wife has been dead several years.

Miss Mary Nicholson, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is now convalescent.—Transcript.

M. W. Vandewater's family have arrived at Brainerd from Canada. He expects to reside at Wadena during the winter.—Wadena Tribune.

James Hughes resumed the duties this morning of his old position as conductor on one of the Northern Pacific short line trains, relieving Conductor Mattix, who takes the Brainerd run.—Superior Telegram.

J. J. Kennedy has returned from a visit to Duluth.

H. S. Totton visited Grand Rapids on Wednesday.

Toys, albums, Christmas cards, and the finest stock of dolls in the city at Parkers.

An accident at the electric light station caused the lights to be shut off last night.

A skating rink will be opened on Seventh street north, near Gregory Park, the first of the week.

James Gunn, a brother of our deputy sheriff, was in the city from West Superior on Wednesday.

Manager Alexander has procured a treat for our music loving citizens, the famous Luttman Sextette.

G. W. Ingraham, of Jamestown, was in the city the first of the week. He was formerly in business in Brainerd.

The Swedish and Norwegian Baptist ministers of Minnesota will hold a conference in St. Paul, beginning on Dec. 11th.

On New Year's night the Hook and Ladder company will give a grand ball at the rink, and arrangements are being made for a grand good time.

We would advise our German and Swedish friends not to miss the Luttman Sextette on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th.

W. A. Fleming, having resigned his position as municipal judge, will resume his practice of law. He has an office on the second floor of the bank block.

There will be an ice cream social a Mrs. J. N. Nevers' on Monday evening by the ladies of the Congregational church. The public are cordially invited.

James Crane and wife arrived in the city Wednesday night from Ohio. They were on their way to Staples, where Mr. Crane will accept a position in Mrs. Cloterman's hotel.

It looks now as though an attempt would be made to revive the roller skating craze in this city, as the rink has been leased to LaGrave & Rowley for two nights each week during the winter for that purpose.

Holiday goods of all kinds cheap at Parkers.

The claim of Allen Morrison, of Crow Wing, Minn., of $200 for depredations by Chippewa Indians in 1856, has been allowed by the Interior department. Also that of Hugh Masteron, of the same place, for $18.

John Orth, who has been sick with typhoid fever for several weeks past, has sufficiently recovered to resume work in his shop on Laurel street again, where he would be pleased to meet his old friends and customers.

The schedule of liabilities, as filed by the assignee of J. E. Wilson with the clerk of the court, shows the amount to be $2098.97. The stock of goods on hand has been sold to J. M. Hayes for $500, the horses, delivery rigs and fixtures having been taken by H. J. Spencer on a chattel mortgage. From appearances it is estimated that the creditors will receive less than 25 per cent. of their claims.

John Willis, of this city, has been appointed inspector of timber and lumber for the entire system of the Northern Pacific road, with headquarters in St. Paul, and he enters upon his duties at once. While Mr. Willis' friends in Brainerd are pleased to see him promoted to a position which his long and faithful services with the company merits, they are loath to see him leave the city. He has been employed here some nineteen years. Mr. Willis will not move his family for the present. Ole Erickson succeeds him in the lumber yard at the shops.

If you want goods cheap and good, go to Parkers.

On Saturday evening the shop J. & W. Paine, on Laurel street, was broken into by a thief who entered by taking out a window glass in the rear of the building, and a Winchester rifle, shot gun and four dollars in cash stolen from the room. The articles were not missed until the next day and Mr. Paine was not long in obtaining a clue. He followed the fellow to Staples, and on Monday night located him in a tie camp some miles out in the country. He was brought into town by Officer Burns of that place, and on Tuesday Sheriff Spalding went up and got him. The guns were found in his possession, but he claims to have bought them. He gives the name of Harry Greene, and is about 19 years old. The examination was set for to-day.

The concert of the Swedish Singing Quartette, under management of Mr. Luttman, took place in "Ludwigslust" Friday evening. Each number of the rich programme was attentively heard, and upon each of them followed such stormy applause that the singers felt themselves compelled to repeat single numbers, and in the kindest manner to add some new songs. You feel thoroughly enraptured when letting these northern fanciful songs set upon you, and you must heartily laugh when you hear Bellman's most excellent humorous musical rallies, for instance, "Susanne in Babylon."—Nordische Zeitung, Jan. 8, Bremerhaven.

Fatal Accident.
On Saturday last John Dasher, formerly a well-known resident of this city, was killed at Tacoma while in the discharge of his duties as engineer on the Northern Pacific. An account of the accident is that a Northern Pacific freight train from Portland escaped from the control of its crew through the air brakes giving out on the grade entering Tacoma, and collided with another freight. Both locomotives and a dozen cars were hurled into the bay. Engineer Dasher and Fireman Horton, of the runaway train, were killed and two brakemen were fatally injured, and one brakeman is missing. The deceased was a man of family.

Death of Mr. Regan.

Rev. W. W. Regan, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this city, died at his residence on Fourth street north, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2nd, of Bright's disease. Deceased had lived in Brainerd for seven years and leaves a wife and son to mourn his death. He was 55 years of age. The funeral is being conducted this afternoon from the Baptist Church, Rev. Jenkins officiating.

Police Court Cullings.

Harry Greene, the youth who stole the articles from Paine's gun shop, pleaded guilty to petty larceny, and was committed to pay a fine of $100 or serve ninety days in the county jail. He accepted the latter and thereby escapes a cold winter.

Jack Burns, who answered to the charge of having assaulted Police Officer Delaney with a Winchester rifle against the peace and dignity of the state on the morning of Dec. 3rd, was before Judge Chipfield yesterday morning, but the examination was adjourned until Monday, at 10 a. m., in order to secure witnesses. In the meantime Burns is out on $500 bail.

John Willet, a very black coon, was up before the court yesterday morning to answer to the charge of assault with intent to rape a ten-year-old girl in East Brainerd on Monday night. He waived examination and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury in March. The complaint was made by Jas. Lackey, who was on the ground about the time the alleged assault was committed, and assisted in running the coon down and delivered him to the police. The girl is the daughter of P. Ort, and the assault took place in the railroad yard. Her cries, when the nigger threw her down, brought assistance in time to avert the perpetration of the crime. The villain claims he was only playing with her and denies having committed any offense against the laws, but his actions by attempting to escape seem to indicate that he was well aware of what would follow.

Died at His Post of Duty.

Mrs. James E. Goodman received a telegram from Minneapolis on Wednesday morning bringing the sad news of the sudden death of her father, and she started on the noon train for that city. Mr. Palmer, the deceased, was quite well known in Brainerd, having spent several months at different times with his daughter here during the past two years. He was a gentleman universally respected and liked, and his death brings a pang of sorrow to many a heart. The Minneapolis Evening Journal in speaking of his death says:

It was a singular death reported to Coroner Towers this morning. An old and trusted employee of a great railway corporation, stationed as a night switchman at the most important railway junction in the city, had thrown his last switch and lay stretched out dead in his little watch house at 1st street and 4th avenue N. The train that thundered past him at an early hour in the morning, on their way to the far west or east, disturbed him not, and the passengers slumbered on, all unconscious of the fact that a most important guardian of the safety of the railway had died at his post.

The dead man was J. S. Palmer, once roadmaster of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, and was found shortly after 8 o'clock this morning dead of his heart where he had evidently fallen off while suffering from a paralytic stroke or a stroke of heart disease. His hands clasped the cot and on his face was the peaceful expression of one who was still in deep slumber. The police were notified, then the coroner and a patrol wagon bore the remains to Connelly's morgue. Death had evidently occurred only a short time for the body was still warm. The deceased was a man of about 60 years of age and has several grown up children. One, a son, is a switchman, and was at the spot when the man was borne away. He said his father had suffered from a paralytic stroke about two years ago. A post-mortem examination, however, will be held. He was roadmaster for the St. Louis road some 10 years ago and was held in high regard by the company. His wife has been dead several years.

Miss Mary Nicholson, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is now convalescent.—Transcript.

M. W. Vandewater's family have arrived at Brainerd from Canada. He expects to reside in Wadena during the winter.—Wadena Tribune.

James Hughes resumed the duties this morning of his old position as conductor on one of the Northern Pacific short line trains, relieving Conductor Mattix, who takes the Brainerd run.—Superior Telegram.

B. F. Hartshorn was home to Philbrook on Wednesday, to attend the wedding of his daughter, Della, who was married to C. W. Miller, the station agent at Motley. Mr. and Mrs. Hartshorn will hereafter reside at Staples, having fitted up rooms adjoining his law office.—Staples Cor. Motley Register.

The Interior department has given the farmers in the Devil's Lake country permission to cut six loads of wood each on the military wood reservation.

The Bennett school law in Wisconsin is likely to remain on the statute books after all. The one republican majority in the state senate will prevent its repeal.

The new mayor was not at all backward about explaining his views on gambling. In less than an hour from the time he was elected, he had every gambling house in the city closed as tight as an oyster.

The editor of the Journal has been elected to the legislature from this district by the grace of republican votes, and still you would think by the way he frantically tears his hair that he and the whole democratic ticket had been defeated and by fraud, when the fact is exactly the contrary and the five democrats have their certificates of election in their inside pockets. Let up for just one issue, Bro. Stivers, the thing is getting monotonous.

Advices from the Sandwich Islands says that King Kalakaua, who is on his way to this country, brings with him about $300,000, and as he has a mania for poker playing, and especially for playing without limit, the probabilities are that his visit will be in the nature of a God-send to the gambling circles in the leading towns that he honors with his presence. The dusky monarch will undoubtedly give Brainerd a cold shoulder should he hear of the change in the administration.

JUDGE CHIPPERFIELD should feel considerable pride in his election to the office of municipal judge without opposition and without a dissenting vote. The council has placed great confidence in him by its action, and it is believed that he will be a credit to the position. Although a man young in years and only recently admitted to the bar, his qualifications were such as to make him eminently fitted for the place, and he presides with dignity over the court. He has received many congratulations.

Isn't it time that the people of this city and county began agitating the subject of drawing party lines in coming elections. If the democrats are in the majority in the city let them be responsible for the government of the same or vice versa. For some years every time a mayor has been elected, if he happened to be a democrat, the news has been heralded abroad that a victory had been gained by the democrats in this city when the fact was that no lines were ever drawn in city elections. Take it at the present time, for instance, and leaving the aldermen out entirely, every city office but one is filled by a democrat, not that they are not good officers but for a city like Brainerd which claims to be republican it looks as though the claim was unfounded. The democrats are not at all anxious to draw party lines, and why? Simply because democrats stick together and vote for men of their own political creed in any event and that is the secret of their success. Do you suppose that the democratic head of the city government would have resigned last Monday evening if he had not had the assurance that a democrat was to succeed him? And thus it is and ever will be unless the republicans take some stand in the matter. If Brainerd is a republican city let's know it.

County Auditor Ellenbecker is not very "slow" at selecting a canvassing board, ignoring the services of papers, and preparing certificates of election ahead of the canvass. Mr. Ellenbecker's actions were such as to disgust all citizens who favor the transaction of public business in its regular order, and none were more surprised at his course than his political associates, many of whom did not believe that he would be a party to any trickery for the sake of any candidate's interests. Bill of the Gull River Co. for $24 was laid over without action, and the clerk ordered to make counter claim of $50 for hose burned at Gull River fire. The matter of raising money to meet interest due Jan. 1st, 1891, was referred to the finance committee to report at next regular meeting. The resolution introduced ordering a sidewalk built commencing at the mill track and running north to the south side of Laurel street and west to the Mississippi river bridge was adopted.

A communication from His Honor, the Mayor, was read as follows:

To the Honorable Council of the City of Brainerd.

Gentlemen: Having been elected to an office which will require me to be absent from this city the greater portion of the time between now and the expiration of my term as mayor, I wish to resign my duties as mayor, and the office of mayor, in order that you may elect as my successor one who will be here, and will be able to give the duties of the office the required attention. Since the beginning of my term as a city officer with you I have been deeply gratified with the thorough understanding and co-operation that have continued unbroken between the council and myself, and with the thoroughly efficient and competent manner in which your honorable body has performed its duties. For the reason already stated I hereby tender you my resignation as mayor, to take effect as soon as my successor takes the oath of office.

Very respectfully,

H. C. STIVERS.

The resignation was accepted as was also the resignation of Judge Fleming, after the following communication was read:

Brainerd, Minn., Dec. 1, 1890.

To the City Council of the City of Brainerd.

Gentlemen: I hereby resign my office as municipal judge of the city of Brainerd, and in so doing permit me to extend to the members of this honorable body, to the present efficient clerk, to the chief of police and to the other police officers, my heartfelt thanks for their kindly consideration and uniform courtesy toward me during the time I have had the honor to hold the office which I now resign. Thanks to one and all. With my best wishes for my successor, I am,

W. A. FLEMING.

The new charter provides that in case of a vacancy in the office of mayor may be filled by the council instead of calling a new election, and accordingly nominations were called for.

Alderman Hemstead placed in nomination N. W. Wheatley, president of the council, and no other nominations being made the ballot was prepared, the vote standing seven for N. W. Wheatley and two for J. J. Howe.

Mr. Wheatley being declared elected. Immediately upon his election Mr. Wheatley arose and thanked the gentlemen for the honor, stating that he should endeavor to give the city a good government and that his efforts should be turned toward reformation in regard to the gambling in the city. He would stop it if he could do so with the present chief of police or he would get a new one. He further stated that he had no friends to reward or axes to grind, and whatever he did would be with a sense of duty.

Mr. Hagberg was unanimously elected president of the council for the remainder of the term.

The council then adjourned to meet in special session for the purpose of electing a municipal judge to fill the vacancy. C. E. Chipperfield was nominated and received the unanimous vote for the position and was declared elected, after which the special session adjourned.

On New Year's night the Hook and Ladder company will give a grand ball at the rink, and arrangements are being made for a grand good time.

It looks now as though an attempt would be made to revive the roller skating craze in this city, as the rink has been leased to LaGrave & Rowley for two nights each week during the winter for that purpose.

Holiday goods of all kinds cheap at Parkers.

The claim of Allen Morrison, of Crow Wing, Minn., of $200 for depredations by Chippewa Indians in 1856, has been allowed by the Interior department. Also that of Hugh Masterson, of the same place, for $18.

John Orth, who has been sick with typhoid fever for several weeks past, has sufficiently recovered to resume work in his shop on Laurel street again, where he would be pleased to meet his old friends and customers.

The schedule of liabilities, as filed by the assignee of J. E. Wilson with the clerk of the court, shows the amount to be $2098.97. The stock of goods on hand has been sold to J. M. Hayes for $500, the horses, delivery rigs and fixtures having been taken by H. J. Spencer on a chattel mortgage. From appearances it is estimated that the creditors will receive less than 25 per cent. of their claims.

John Willis, of this city, has been appointed inspector of timber and lumber for the entire system of the Northern Pacific road, with headquarters in St. Paul, and he enters upon his duties at once. While Mr. Willis' friends in Brainerd are pleased to see him promoted to a position which his long and faithful services with the company merit, they are loath to see him leave the city. He has been employed here some nineteen years. Mr. Willis will not remove his family for the present. Ole Erickson succeeds him in the lumber yard at the shops.

If you want goods cheap and good, go to Parker's.

On Saturday evening the gun shop J. & W. Paine, on Laurel street, was broken into by a thief who entered by taking out a window glass in the rear of the building, and a Winchester rifle, shot gun and four dollars in cash stolen from the room. The articles were not missed until the next day and Mr. Paine was not long in obtaining a clue. He followed the fellow to Staples, and on Monday night located him in a camp some miles out in the country. He was brought into town by Officer Burns of that place, and on Tuesday Sheriff Spalding went up and got him. The guns were found in his possession, but he claims to have bought them. He gives the name of Harry Greece, and is about 19 years old. The examination was set for to-day.

The concert of the Swedish Singing Quartette, under management of Mr. Luttman, took place in "Ludwigshus" Friday evening. Each number of the rich programme was attentively heard, and upon each of them followed such stormy applause that the singers felt themselves compelled to repeat single numbers, and in the kindest manner to add some new songs. You feel thoroughly enraptured when letting these northern folks sing at you, and you must heartily laugh when you hear Bellman's most excellent humorous musical rallies, for instance, "Susanne in Babylon." Nordsee Zeitung, Jan. 8, Bremerhaven.

Fatal Accident.

On Saturday last John Dasher, formerly a well-known resident of this city, was killed at Tacoma while in the discharge of his duties as engineer on the Northern Pacific. An account of the accident is that a Northern Pacific freight train from Portland escaped from the control of its crew through the air brakes giving out on the grade entering Tacoma, and collided with another freight. Both locomotives and a dozen cars were hurled into the bay. Engineer Dasher and Fireman Horton, of the runaway train, were killed and two brakemen were fatally injured, and one brakeman is missing. The deceased was a man of family.

Death of Mr. Regan.

Rev. W. W. Regan, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this city, died at his residence on Fourth street north, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2nd, of Bright's disease. Deceased had lived in Brainerd for seven years and leaves a wife and son to mourn his death. He was 55 years of age. The funeral is being conducted this afternoon from the Baptist Church, Rev. Jenkins officiating.

Harry Greene, the youth who stole the articles from Paine's gun shop, pleaded guilty to petty larceny, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve ninety days in the county jail. He accepted the latter and thereby escapes a cold winter.

Jack Burns, who answered to the charge of having assaulted Police Officer Delaney with a Winchester rifle against the peace and dignity of the state on the morning of Dec. 3rd, was before Judge Chipperfield yesterday morning, but the examination was adjourned until Monday, at 10 a. m., in order to secure witnesses. In the meantime Burns is out on $500 bail.

John Willet, a very black coon, was up before the court yesterday morning to answer to the charge of assaulting with intent to rape a ten-year-old girl in East Brainerd on Monday night. He waived examination and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury in March. The complaint was made by Jas. Lackey, who was on the ground about the time the alleged assault was committed, and assisted in running the coon down and delivered him to the police. The girl is the daughter of P. Ort, and the assault took place in the railroad yard. Her cries, when the nigger threw her down, brought assistance in time to avert the perpetration of the crime. The villain claims he was only playing with her and denies having committed any offense against the laws, but his actions by attempting to escape seem to indicate that he was well aware of what would follow.

Died at His Post of Duty.

Mrs. James E. Goodman received a telegram from Minneapolis on Wednesday morning bringing the sad news of the sudden death of her father, and she started on the noon train for that city. Mr. Palmer, the deceased, was quite well known in Brainerd, having spent several months at different times with his daughter here during the past two years. He was a gentleman universally respected and liked, and his death brings a pang of sorrow to many a heart. The Minneapolis Evening Journal in speaking of his death says:

It was a singular death, reported to Corner Towers this morning. An old and trusted employee of a great railway corporation, stationed as a night switchman at the most important railway junction in the city, had thrown his last weary and lay stretched out dead in his little watch house at 1st street and 4th avenue N. The trains that thundered past him at an early hour in the morning, on his way to his far west or east, disturbed him not, and the passengers slumbered on, all unconscious of the fact that a most important guardian of the safety of the rail lay dead at his post.

The dead man was J. S. Palmer, once roadmaster of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, and well known to old residents. He was found shortly after 8 o'clock this morning at the foot of his cot where he had evidently fallen after a stroke of heart disease. His hands clasped the cot and on his face was the peaceful expression of one who was still in deep slumber. The police were notified, then the coroner and a patrol wagon bore the remains to Connelly's morgue. Death had evidently occurred only a short time, for the body was still warm. The deceased was a man of about 60 years of age and had several grown up children. One, a son, is a switchman, and was at the spot when the remains were borne away. He said his father had suffered from a paralytic stroke about two years ago. A post-mortem examination, however, will be held. He was roadmaster for the St. Louis road some 10 years ago, and was held in high regard by the company. His wife has been dead several years.
